

Man Enough

Def Leppard

You got this reputation for calling all the shots
I got your invitation so show me what you got

Are you man enough?

You got me in a cold sweat with a lingering caress
A bullet in your chamber with no return address
If you can keep a secret then we can make a deal
Put your finger on your trigger and show me how you feel

When you're moving to the music you got voodoo in your hips
And the devil would approve it so the question on my lips

Are you man enough?
Are you man enough?
Are you man enough?
To be mine
To be mine
Be my girl

You got my full attention when you're movin' 'cross the floor
Divine intervention comes a knockin' on my door
I got no time for talking, just need some company
Let your fingers do the walking all over me

When you're moving to the music you got voodoo in your eyes
Let the devil try to prove it but the question will arise

Are you man enough?
Are you man enough?
Are you man enough?
To be mine
To be mine
Be my girl

Show me down the river (4x)

Are you man enough? (6x)

Are you man enough to be my girl?
Are you man enough? (Are you man enough?)
Are you man enough? (Are you man enough?)
Are you man enough? (Are you man enough?)
To be mine
To be mine
Be my girl
