Paper Sun

Def Leppard

Does it hurt to remember Does it help to forget Do you know what you started When you lit the fuse of regret

Cause you're living on a paper sun Blind to all the damage done Living on a paper sun Waiting for the tide to turn Living on a paper sun You can't hide and you can't run All your dreams have come and gone Living on a paper sun

Do you still hear 'em screamin' And does the fear make you run Is the anger inside of you A gift from father to son

I don't believe in you, you've come undone I don't believe in what you do, this can't go on I don't believe in you as I walk this broken land

Cause you're living on a paper sun Blind to all the damage done Living on a paper sun Waiting for the tide to turn Living on a paper sun You can't hide and you can't run All your dreams have come and gone Living on a paper....

You will discover the way to suffer And like no other you feed the fire

Cause you're living on a paper sun Blind to all the damage done Living on a paper sun Waiting for the tide to turn Living on a paper sun Waiting for the night All your dreams have come and gone
