Defeated Sanity

Thrown into this world of filth
Subject to hostility
Temptation lurks the void
(Of) a lacerated soul
Mistrust and disarray
Growing stronger everyday
Destructive ego takes control
As the Viciousness is creeping into the self-centered mind
Twisted creatures - poisoning,
Inbred habits - disseminate,
Virtues, morality - mortify
A hopeless world consumed with rivalry

Engraved deep inside, a mindset broadly accepted
Maladjusted, small doses of perversion
Vile influences obscuring the path to purity and reason
Animality takes over.

Blinded by impurity, a slave to earthly fray
Cannot liberate myself, forever bound to these chains
Condemned to live a life of longing until I die

Blinded by impurity, a slave to earthly fray
Cannot liberate myself, forever bound to these chains
Condemned to live a life of longing until I die

Developed deep inside, a process perceived as.... harmless,
Protection of the self, absorbing the... majority
Struggling to overcome the ones surrounding you
Yet bonded with your surroundings, a paradox that will poison y our life

Brought about
By their Own hands,
Environment turns into inferno
