

No Reason

Defiance

You say war is waged to benefit the people
And that laws are set up to preserve democracy and freedom
You can fuck right off
You think Im following your laws?
I wont fall in line
or be a soldier for your cause!

There's no reason
To waste your life in another mans war
There's no reason
to waste your lifetime following their laws

You say war is waged to benefit the nation
Preserve Security and Protect us from annihilation
Freedom ain't freedom when your backs against a wall
And you're on your own
I you're against the law.

There's no reason
To waste your life in another mans war
There's no reason
to waste your lifetime following their laws

When war is declared
It's assured annihilation
We suffer while they prosper
That's the way its always been
You can fuck right off
you think Im following your rules
I wont fall into line
Or be a soldier for your cause

There's no reason
To waste your life in another mans war
There's no reason
to waste your lifetime following their laws

Fuck Off.
