

Too Close To Being Over

Defiance

sometimes it feels too close to being over and i want to get revenge before it is too late revenge on every coward fucking pig antagonizing, victimizing protectors of the state where human respect is in order freedom is based on respect respect must be earned by the spilling of their blood make no mistakes what the fucking pigs are piss off and drunk with power waiting to brutalize won't take the brutality any fuckin longer can hardly wait to see the fear in their eyes the bastards beat us in line and keep us as slaves fuck them all and piss on their graves one more time to get beaten, arrested or harassed might be the end of that pig
