

Feeding Fatal Fairies

Defleshed

Fate is to be found somewhere and I am halfway there If that is all for sure - there is no cure

And if I'm diehard to the core
Then will I live forever more These are things that have occurred that's at least what I have heard

Time is spreading with the light rapidly to fight
If that is all for sure - we are no more

Life-lines starting to hitch
And I know what they mean by the pitch

I'm feeding fatal fairies
And I'll take what that carries

And if I'm diehard to the core
Then will I live forever more
These are things that I have heard that's at least what may occur

Oh, it's basically a strategy to practise death and distributing tragedy
