Proud To Be Dead

Defleshed

Here at the end of the grave Like a premature sleep the result of the brave

Proud to be Dead

We'll search through infinity and revenge with our trinity With the power of a million horses We are the mightiest of forces

Proud to be Dead

Solid like a group of hundred men They'll seem like only ten When we're back for them again

Now our death-tour begins we'll bring back the head of the comittor of the sins A feeling of akward self-esteem Our promise we'll redeem how unstable that may seem

Proud to be Dead

We've came to pay respect your death we will revenge where you lay I suspect That you'll be

Proud to be Dead
