

Sons Of Spellcraft And Starfalls

Defleshed

We sons of spellcraft and starfalls It's up to us to destroy the halls of enemies

Our spellcraft we release
and they'll decease
-our enemies

We set the starrain free
and they'll see
-their death we'll be

The sword is our spellcraft
The blade of that means pain
And our arrows are the starfalls with which we strike again and again

Stronger than all magic is the blood that runs our veins Attack us with wicthery it hurts like if it rains, yes it rains

We sons of power and lightning
For us is no thing to frightening

Our spellcraft we release
and they'll decease
-our enemies

We set the starrain free
and they'll see
-their death we'll be

Try us with your voodoo and you'll suffer from your deeds All the things that you do makes us stand and watch you bleed -yes you'll bleed
