

Hearts/Wires

Deftones

Nothing can save me now
It's what I believe.
The slit in the sky when you left is all I see.
Nothing to sing about.
I've bet on my lease
No vision or dreams about you came true for me.
Cut through
this razor wire
and dine on your heart.
Right to the end.

Stuck with illusion now
I drown in your sea.
I hope that you first save yourself
And then come for me.

Cut through
This razor wire
And dine on your heart
Right to the end.

Break through

Collect the wires

And writhe in your heart.

Right to the end

All the way
All the way out
All the way

Down deep into your veins
All the way
All the way

Down deep in your heart.
All the way
All the way

All the way cut through

All the way out
Is razor wires

All the way
Right to the the end
Break through
All the way
Collect the wires
All the way out
Dine on your heart
Mine to the end.
