

Prince

Deftones

I relate to your kind
Your design
Your devotion to wave
Get your brain on the prize
Then dive inside

The mindset of a killer
With your mind out of phase

It's a game that we like
We crave, yet nobody wins
Any way you decide
You try, but you die

The mindset of a killer
With your gaze you paint the room
Blood red with tears
Pouring from the stage

And you can't stop now
Rung by rung, almost out
Covered in black and gold
No one cares, no one knows
My gift to the world outside
It's okay, I'm alright
Now open your empty head
Here comes the fun
Here comes the end

Click erase the device
Give thanks, then clear out the room
Blow kisses, wave them goodbye
Goodnight

The mindset of a killer
With your gaze you paint the room
Blood red with tears
Pouring from the stage

And you can't stop now
Rung by rung, almost out
Covered in black and gold
No one cares, no one knows
My gift to the world outside
It's okay, I'm alright
Now open your empty head
Here comes the fun
Here comes the end
