

Fighting to stay alive, each and every day
Time grabs hold, till the day I learn to let go

Days gone by, don't wake up, keep on, give a try
With your life

I give up, with my life
My dream is open for you

Stay, stay for a while
My dream has fallen through

Starting to understand, my mistakes and failures
Find your strength, it's there but you have to find it

Days gone by, don't wake up, keep on, give a try
With your life

I give up, with my life
My dream is open for you

Stay, stay for a while
My dream has fallen through

Maybe someday I will be set free

I am so tired, just want to wake up
Out of this dream, feel so alone

I give up, with my life
My dream is open for you

Stay, stay for a while
My dream has fallen through
