Even the Gods Can Bleed

Deicide

I am the one spreading plague and disease God cannot hear you, he is deaf to your pleas Holy despair, overthrowing the lord One with the devil all faith is destroyed

The end has begun, behold thy name

Defacing their idols and breaking their laws Murdering Christ as I cripple the cross No resurrection, dethroned Nazarene Prayers go unanswered, succumb to defeat

Fallen from grace, bring an end to all things Heavens disciples will fall to my rage Devoured by faith, the illusion of god Crucify Christ to the unholy one

The end has begun, behold thy name

Death to your god, the end has begun
The savior descend, divine suffering,
Invite the unknown despised and dethroned, to fold in defeat, even the gods can bleed

The end has begun, behold thy name Repent unto thee, even the gods can bleed

I am the one spreading plague and disease God cannot hear you, he is deaf to your pleas Holy despair, overthrowing the lord One with the devil all faith is destroyed
