Trifixion

Blaspheming god, my body was possessed The essence of their spirits are evil Burning my flesh, inhaling no regrets A diabolic sentence of destruction

Burning I bleed, unholy incision Mark of the beast, behold the trifixion

Prepare the tool to observe my fate Upon this mortal shell in Satan's name I desecrate Evil controlling the way I die The mark is what distorts my soul beyond my sanity

In the name of Satan
I condemn this image of god
I am a key!....

Blessed by the sign, symbolically I die Intwist me in the lines of trifixion Torment, semantic in design Inflict this mortal shrine, with pure hatred Kill me, before my time is lived It's all I have to give, to be thankful Satan, entangled in my sores Forever I am bound by your conviction

Tri~ Fixion, Tri~ Fixion

Prepare the tool to observe my fate Upon this mortal shell in Satan's name I desecrate Evil controlling the way I die The mark is what distorts my soul beyond my sanity Deicide
