

Worthless Misery

Deicide

Worthless misery, failure to me,
Promise a lie, caught in deceit,
trapped in the thought,
can't be believed, Torn from the one,
by your own will, deal with the pain, nothing fulfilled, Scourge of grief, dead to us, life...
resume, hell for you...

It is done and you have lost before the world to see. Anger fit into the shock of your insanity. Cry to god and find that he has turned his back to you, Made to look the way you are and what you tried to do, No defense or compromise will change the final end, All alone unto yourself a midst the suffering, Stripped the right to recommend or try to intervene, Facts compound the final outcome of your own defeat, Rip the weak of their desire and humility, Bound to hell for all you hurt with your hypocrisy, Bleed exposed within words of what the bible said, Beg to death will only get you more of what you dread, Dead to us a remedy begin to perfect life, Gone for good the pain and again that you invite, Hang yourself with every word that you have misperceived, Fool yourself has now propelled me into victory.

Worthless misery, brought on by you,
Worthless filth of eve,
Entomb the womb,

Worthless to god, And us you are,
Worthless to all, Heartache befall

Worthless to me, You have no need,
Worthless in death,
Peace you wont get,

Worthless in vain, Driven insane,
Worthless your sins,
Vengeance, I win.

Penance divide, smell of disease,
fucked and distraught,

Frozen in grief, listen to none,
face your demise, caught in the act,
Dead to mankind.

Worthless misery, incased in doom, death to you, Heart of stone will be your fortune in the depth below, Dignity and a conviction to be never known,

Misery from whence you came and all you ever knew, Light of god and the forgiveness
count the end of you, In distress instill the time of the epiphany,

Here is now and you refuse to see the suffering, Catalyst in your disgrace unfound unto respect, Live with hell inside the flesh until you rot with death...

Worthless to god, And us you are,
Worthless to all, Heartache as well,

Worthless to me, You have no need,
Worthless to hell, Heaven as well,

Worthless in vain, Driven insane,
Worthless you are. Worse one by far,

Worthless disease, Brought up by greed, Worthless in life, Pray that you die,

Worthless in death, Peace you won't get, Worthless your sins, Vengeance, I win.
