Deine Lakaien

Feel the skins so hot
It's singing like the sun
See this unknown colour
Invade the sky above

We will touch these fires
With our naked arms
And the wind will help us
Passengers of the night

And our skin is burning
On a journey never ending
We will visit places
In a long lost world

Feel you skin so hot
Even night is trembling
Between longing fingers
Melts the sky away

Burning naked bodies
Kisses screen to screen
Entering the valley
Where will we meet James D.

They are waiting for the nightboat
Every hour every day
'cause they heard about the story
Whispering spies are everywhere
Now the crowd will share the secret
But our sea is beyond time
