

Forest

Deine Lakaien

Small command that open the door
Drew away the curtain, I had to assign
Into a forest I've never seen before
One million pixels in a line

Dark dark dark
Is the road to my heart
Sun sun sun
Where are you gone

2000 miles following the passage
Screens in malfunction, lost the key
2000 years waiting for a message
A tired old man, looking at me

Dark dark dark
Is the road to my heart
Sun sun sun
Where are you gone

Found myself in the middle of the forest
Off from my hand, the data-glove
Down on my knees, into the forest
And in the sky was written "LOVE"
There's a hole inside my brain
And the sky turns black again
There's a rain in the middle of my brain
Putting out fire that tried to burn

Dark dark dark
Is the road to my heart
Sun sun sun
Where are you gone
