Gospel of Maggots

crooked fingers they twitch - organic dysfunction muscles go into spasms - bodily corrosion even the most sublime flesh - destined to wither once silky breasts now rotten apart - for worms to slither on this is ultimate communion sacrament of decomposition eternal life in rancid paradise fused into the black matter of aeons for no one hears the prayers, no one to answer the cries a supreme being you worship, it's all just fucking lies empty promise, mankind's' curse dig into the soil , pierce right through the darkness to uncover nothing more than all - consuming putrefaction praise the god of rot elevate the eucharist, herald the infestation enter the garden of eden where maggots are angels your flesh perished, your lord eaten ideas drowned in a festering mass divine purpose - arrogant claim sudden death shifts the order of events no ascension - only decay this is ultimate communion sacrament of decomposition eternal life in rancid heaven united with ashes of fathers
