Always The Last To Know

Del Amitri

So you're in love with someone else Someone who burns within your soul And it looks like I am the last to know I hear you've never felt so alive So much desire beyond control And as usual I am the last to know

The last to know How you're feeling The last to know Where you are

The last to know If you're happy now Or if he's treating you, like I treated you Or if he's cruel I'll be the last to know

We spent summers up beyond the bay And you said these are such prefect days That if the bomb drops baby I want to be the last to know

But now you're living up behind the hill And though we share the same city and feel the same sun When your winter comes I'll be the last to know

Always the last to know How you're feeling The last to know Where you are

The last to know If you're happy now Or if he's pleading with you, like I pleaded with you If you go, don't let me be the last to know Don't let me be the last to know

Creations gone crazy

The TV's gone mad

Now you're the only sane thing that I have

Always the last to know How you're feeling The last to know Where you are

The last to know If you're happy now Or if he's cheating on you, like I cheated on you Oh, oh, oh

You were the last to know You were the last to know Don't let me be the last to know
