

I Can Hear The Angels Singing

Del McCoury

I can hear the angels singing
As I walk this rocky road
While my thoughts
Are all of heaven
And my Savior's Blessed Abode

Oh I can hear the angels singing
I can hear my Savior's voice
And I'll soon be singing with them
Through endless ages we'll rejoice

I can hear the angels singing
Of my Saviors's Blessed Love
How he died to build a mansion
For His children up above.

Oh I can hear the angels singing
I can hear my Savior's voice
And I'll soon be singing with them
Through endless ages we'll rejoice

Oh I can hear the angels singing
I can hear my Savior's voice
And I'll soon be singing with them
Through endless ages we'll rejoice
