

Daydreams

Del Shannon

I sit here all alone, tears in my eyes
Seeing shadows of you
But it's only, only a daydream
That I dream.

They say we're through, it must be so
But I'm still thinking of you.
But it's only, only a daydream
That I dream of you.

It was only yesterday, you were in love with me
Now alone am I to dream,
dreaming of only you.

I'm so lonely
Can't fight these tears making memories of you.
But it's only, only a daydream.
That I dream of you.
Oh it's only , only a daydream
That I dream of you.
