

I Wake Up Crying

Del Shannon

I wake up crying
After tossin' and a-turnin'
And a-yearnin' the whole night long
Pretty baby since you went away
I haven't spent a happy day

I wake up crying
After sobbin' and a-sighin'
And a-wonderin' just what went wrong
Pretty baby I was good to you
Why'd you go and make me blue

I need your arms to hold me tight
I need your lips to kiss goodnight
I'm so unhappy on my own
Don't don't leave me sad and lonely

I wake up crying
After tossin' and a-turnin'
And a-yearnin' the whole night long
Pretty baby please come back to me
Save me from this misery
Oh baby won'tcha save me from this misery
Oh baby won'tcha save me from this misery...
