

In Brilliant Sunshine

Delays

In lights, in lights
Lashes run to the speakers
Torches flick under whispers
Late at night
You're out of sight, of land and light

Yves Klein stay here a while
Backstage, they don't deserve your smile and grace
We'll meet in space, we'll meet in space

Someone's here, someone's here
Someone's here, someone's here

Lashes stunned into thunder
These storms won't keep you underground
Tonight, you burn too bright for their delight

Tailspin down through the lightning
Enthralled to hours frightening
Crave, a psalm, a call to arms
A voice to calm

Someone's here, someone's here
Sun shines here, sun shines here
In lights, in lights, in lights

Shapes and lights, shapes and lights
Shapes and lights, shapes and lights
You always bring the fight
