

No Ending

Delays

I've seen you hanging from blistering skies
Holding yourself with a grace that defies
Law after law as well spit in the eye
Fall on me when you come down

You've seen me panic and kick without sight
Of any danger except what I might
Know of myself and see in you tonight
Fall on me when you come down

The air is thin and hard to breath
With sweetness that you lost to me
Despite the noose around that kiss
I try to tell myself this is
No ending

Seeing you buzzing from flickering signs
Bringing on warnings of incoming fire
Blood on your hands from the tongue of a liar
Fall on me when you come down

The air is thin and hard to breath
With sweetness that you lost to me
Despite the noose around that kiss
I try to tell myself this is
No ending
It's no ending

Leaving alone and I see you're still breathing
Head out of sight, but the neon's deceiving
There is no danger of you getting anywhere here

I know I'm prone to rushing in
With no pretense of listening
Despite this noose around our kiss
I try to tell myself this is
No ending
It's no ending