

You See Colours

Delays

Well there's only so much that a boy can take
And look at the state of him now
His tongue is tied in two

Hands that shake
The eyes don't lie

But still I didn't expect you to sink so soon
And look at the state of me now
But guess what I've heard...

A little longer and we're away
A little longer and we're away
A little longer and we're the thing
Cos you see colours deep in me

Ahhhhhh
We ride - let the road decide
We ride, we ride - we live for tomorrow
But we're only temporary

But the room is alive with a sense of time
Derived from the look in your eyes
They thought I'd found it

A little longer and we're away
A little longer and we're away
A little longer and we're the thing
Cos you see colours deep in me

Ahhhhhh
We ride - let the road decide
Yeah we ride, we ride - let the road decide

Remember what you gave
It will set you free
Cos you alone make the sweet sea breeze today
Freeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee

Live for tomorrow but we're only temporary
We're only temporary now now now

Ahhhhhh
We ride - let the road decide
Yeah we ride, we ride - let the road decide

Remember what you gave
It will set you free
Cos you alone make the sweet sea breeze today
Freeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee

Live for tomorrow
We're only temporary now now now
