

You Wear The Sun

Delays

Oh, hey baby, there's something wrong
You burnt away, you wear the sun
And maybe, I slept too long
And missed the game, and now you're gone
You wear the sun

If I could, I would leave you alone

Baby, put down your gun
And turn away, you wear the sun
Maybe I should have told you I'm no fun
Before PM, and now you're gone
You wear the sun

If I could, I would leave you alone

There's a daisy chain
It's tying me down to the field of play
Such an open face
You're leaving me nothing but hope to chase

You got the sun
You wear the sun
You wear the sun
You wear the sun
