

Lipstick Traces

Delbert McClinton

Your pretty brown eyes, your wavy hair
I won't go home no more 'cause you're not there
I'm telling you now, like I told you before
I'm so in love with you, don't leave me no more

Lipstick traces on a cigarette
Every memory lingers with me yet
I got it bad, like I told you before
I'm so in love with you, don't leave me no more

Won't you come on home
Won't you come back home
I'm crazy 'bout you, can't do without you
Oh, won't you come on home

Won't you come on home
Won't you come back home
I'm crazy 'bout you, can't do without you
Oh, won't you come on home

Your pretty brown eyes, your wavy hair
I won't go home no more 'cause you're not there
Now I got it bad, like I told you before
I'm so in love with you, don't leave me no more
