

Above The Clouds

Delerium

There are no stars tonight my love
Darkness lives inside my heart without your love
How could you hear me when there are no words to say
I close my eyes and wait to escape

I'm leaving without you
I'm leaving without you

There is no sun to warm me through
The shadows laying on my heart
Shut out the moon
I couldn't bring a rainbow to my cloudy days
I close my eyes and fade away

I'm leaving without you
I'm leaving without you

I feel the colour of me changing as I fly away
I know the world is waiting underneath a sky of glory
I want the colours of me brightened by the golden breeze
I know that love awaits me as I am released

I'm in the stars tonight my love
Darkness lives outside my heart
Now I'm above....

I'm leaving without you
