

Magic

Delerium

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

When you walked into the room
I found I couldn't even move
There was magic in your eyes
You could see inside my mind

There is magic in the air tonight
There is magic in the air tonight
There is magic in the air tonight
There is magic in the air tonight

When you touched my hand I knew
That I had helplessly fell for you
You had cast a spell on me
You were all that I could see

'Cause there is magic in the air tonight
There is magic in the air tonight
Yes, there is magic in the air tonight
There is magic in the air tonight

Now the moon is full tonight
So maybe that's why I've lost my mind
But the spell you cast on me
Has made me feel so free

I think we're gonna fly away up to the stars
And I don't even know who you are Maybe it's just an old superstition, but You're a warlock aren't you?

'Cause there is magic in the air tonight
Yes, there is magic in the air tonight
