

All Alone

Delight

I can see the reason that you're leaving fighting something you're not seeing 'cause I know I know it so well.
I can tell when you stopped trying no way out you can't deny it you just knew you know me so well I know I'll see this day again all will change, you don't know when afraid to see me taking my first step I'm recreated here again can't reject this phantom pain you burned all bridges and became someone else
all alone
you're on top of the game but...
all I know I'm on top of the game but
all alone
I can feel the absence in me feel it shaping me and brimming and I know I know it so well I remember hands not granted nanoworlds I had invented and you know you knew me so well I know I saw your face again crowds of people, one of them I can't find you staying where I am I'm recreated here again can't reject my phantom pain I'll burn all bridges and become someone else all alone you're on top of the game but... all I know I'm on top of the game but... all alone all I know I'm so alone
I'm so alone
all alone
you're on top of the game but
all alone
all I know I'm on top of the game but
all alone
all alone
you're on top of the game but
all alone
all I know
I'm on top of the game but...
