

Our world is divided into two parts
Cut it out for a start

Our happiness like two hands joined for an everyday prayer
An old faded picture
Like dry bread

Our world is divided into two parts
Somebody once so close
Suddenly a total stranger
Cut it out for a start
Make the best of bad times
Leave my mind

Sleepless nights in an empty house
Now whisper says the echo
Make sure a lot is gone

Our world is divided into two parts
Somebody once so close
Suddenly a total stranger
Cut it out for a start
Make the best of bad times
Leave my mind

Through your human reason you will never see unity
Between what is beginning and what soon will not be

I still can't understand how
Somebody once so close
Suddenly a total stranger
Cut it out for a start
Make the best of bad times
Leave my mind
