Our world is divided into two parts Cut it out for a start

Our happiness like two hands joined for an everyday prayer
An old faded picture
Like dry bread

Our world is divided into two parts
Somebody once so close
Suddenly a total stranger
Cut it out for a start
Make the best of bad times
Leave my mind

Sleepless nights in an empty house Now whisper says the echo Make sure a lot is gone

Our world is divided into two parts
Somebody once so close
Suddenly a total stranger
Cut it out for a start
Make the best of bad times
Leave my mind

Through your human reason you will never see unity Between what is beginning and what soon will not be

I still can't understand how Somebody once so close Suddenly a total stranger Cut it out for a start Make the best of bad times Leave my mind
