

Sleep With The Light On

Delight

Better watch your back. is your mother there is your mother there you are like a baby better be a man better be a man someone overhears all you say and do does it bother you who is gonna save you is your conscience clear if there's nobody that you fear why are you so weak that you must

shivering in the cold with nothing to hold why are you frightened are you running scared if you must sleep with the light on (you know you know you know you know) you must have done something very wrong

something very wrong

Better get a grip are you unaware is another there coming to delete you it's the enemy that you never see you better beware when you're not around see the solid ground fall away beneath you is someone out there maybe a ghost from the past you can hear all those things you said that make you

shivering in the cold with nothing to hold
why are you frightened are you running scared
(you know you know you know you know)

you can't run away from yourself what goes on in the dark is never out of sight it will come to light

shivering in the cold with nothing to hold
(you know you know you know you know)

you must sleep with the light on shivering in the cold with nothing to hold Who are you fighting it's the beast inside
(you know you know you know you know)
