

Free

Delirious?

I'm feeling feel fine
'cause there's nothing that I want to change
I'm right on time
for the atmosphere to rearrange
'cause I've got wings so watch me fly

And I'm free to be the man you want me to be
I'm alive when I'm alive in you
And I'm free to be the one you said I could be I'm alive 'cose you're alive, I'm alive when I'm alive in you

Lord, you've let me see
I need strength to let you carry me
And love was right on time
When faith and hope were on the line
And I've got wings so watch me fly

And I'm free to be the man you want me to be
I'm alive when I'm alive in you
And I'm free to be the one you dreamt I could be I'm alive 'cos you're alive, I'm alive 'cos you're alive
I'm alive 'cos you're alive in me

You're all I ever want
You're all I ever need
It's all I ever want
To be free
