

Here I Am, Send Me

Delirious?

Show me a vision like Isaiah saw,
Where the angel touched his lips and he sinned no more.
Let me hear your voice saying "Who shall I send?"
I'll say send me Lord, I'll follow you to the end.
Show me a vision like Eziekel saw,
An army of light from a valley of bones.
Breathe life into these lungs of mine,
So I can scream and shout of your love divine.
Search light, burns bright, floods my eyes,
Invade me, serenade me, I'm giving back my life.
Here I am send me, Here I am send me,
There's nothing in my hands,
But here I am send me.
I'm in Jacobs dream seeing heavens gate,
Let me climb all night on my ladder of faith.
Wrestle with the angel till my body is weak,
Dislocate my bones for it's you that I seek.
Show me the light Paul apostle saw,
When he fell to the dust and he could see no more,
Open my eyes, open my eyes,
Open my eyes, open my eyes.
I'm frightened what you'll find,
When you open up my heart, I'm walking in the light,
Cos it's light that changes the atmosphere,
So touch these lips that criticise,
And put a song in my mouth that opens our eyes.
