

I've Never, Never Found Me A Girl

Delroy Wilson

Ain't no love, ain't no love, like my baby's love.
It's like burning fire, locked up in my bones.
Ain't no lonely days, ain't no lonely nights.
Every little thing that she does,
You know the girl's alright.

Cause I've never, never, found me a girl,
To love me like you do, to love me like you do.

Ain't no man, ain't no man, go a little woman like me.
You got all the loving, baby, what a sweet girl can claim.
You're every poor boys dream, you're every poor boys dream,
More than you're every rich man's friend.
Whoa but I'm gonna give you all my money, honey,
If you'll stay right there,
