

Control

Delta Goodrem

I woke up in our bed, but you weren't there
Some dreams start out as dreams and turn into nightmares.

Feel it screaming your name,
But it's always the same
And I can't shut my mouth
And hope you'll love me.

I, I've been in this too long,
But I know that it's wrong to be here
Tonight, I've decided you know
I'm taking back control,
Watch as I leave,
Break to your soul.
Baby, I'm taking back control.
Control.

You had every chance to make it right,
You know I loved you more than anyone else in life.
I'm not yours anymore,
I'm picking my tears up off the floor
'cause baby, you had my heart and I'm taking it back.

I, I've been in this too long,
But I know that it's wrong to be here
Tonight, I've decided you know
I'm taking back control,
Watch as I leave,
Break to your soul.
Baby, I'm taking back control.
Control.

So may I remind you who I was before you?

I, I've been in this too long,
But I know that it's wrong to be here
Tonight, I've decided you know
I'm taking back, I'm taking it back, I'm taking it back, I'm taking it back,
Taking it back, I'm taking it back, I'm taking it back.
Tonight, I've decided you know
I'm taking back control,
Watch as I leave,
Break to your soul.
Baby, I'm taking back control.
Control.

Baby, I'm taking back control,
Control.
Baby, I'm taking back control
