

I Lost All Love 4 You

Delta Goodrem

When you walked into my life with your muddy shoes on and your baggage claim ticket one night
I thought it'd be ok cause there was something about you that m ade me feel somehow safe

I gave too much to you, you took it all away
And by now I had no more to give
So don't try to come back and break me down
I am standing so much stronger now

R: I have lost my love, I have lost my love, I have lost my lov e for you

Every little bit, every part of it
There is nothing more to do
Oh I have lost my faith
I have lost my faith in everything you said was true
When the dust has settled down
I realized I lost the love for you

I lost my belief in tired excuses
And the reasons why you weren't there
I cried myself to sleep but now I'm back on my feet,
I don't need anything more from you
So go live your life and find another wife
Take her to that stupid restaurant you like

R:

It's the same old story
Now my life before me is beautiful
And it's waiting for me

Cause I found myself, yeah I found myself
So I've learned a lot from you
I will never change, not for someone else
I'm my own woman through and through

R:

I lost the love for you
