

War on Love

Delta Goodrem

So I stand on this hill with my flag held high
With the will to survive, bullets flying by
Broken hearts scattered on this battlefield
Holding out for something real
I won't give in, I won't give up
Fight the hope in this war on love

All the dust has settled
I can finally see
I'm crawling from the wreckage
It's brought me to my knees
Deep inside there's a hunger
Waiting for some damn truth
The light on the horizon
Unanswered prayers belong to someone like you

So I stand on this hill with my flag held high
With the will to survive, bullets flying by
Broken hearts scattered on this battlefield
Holding onto something real
I won't give in, I won't give up
Fight the hope in this war on love

I'm gonna hold my ground
Broken arrow in my hand
I'm gonna hold it high above
Yeah, I won't back down
I can see that the smoke is clearing
Distant thunder's passing by
And my heart is calling out
Lets me know that I am still alive

So I stand on this hill with my flag held high
With the will to survive, bullets flying by
Broken hearts scattered on this battlefield
Holding onto something real
I won't give in, I won't give up
Fight the hope in this war on love

I'm calling out can you hear the sound
Of the drum that I'm beating so damn loud

So I stand on this hill with my flag held high
With the will to survive, bullets flying by
Broken hearts scattered on this battlefield
Holding out for something real
I won't give in, I won't give up

Fight the hope in this war on love
Fight the hope in this war on love
Fight the hope in this war on love

I won't give in, I won't give up
I fight for us in this war on love
