

Gimme Some Motivation

Delta Spirit

Are you a believer?

You told me that you loved me but you only knew my middle initial.

My name is Matthew Logan and you spell it L-O-G-A-N.

Sean, John and Brandon Young aren't just living life for the party.

We've got important things to do so this is why we say...

"This is the end, my only friend."

I am pulling my courage once again.

I always knew you'd be watching your T.V.

This is the end.

Give me just a little bit, a little bit of motivation!

You blew my cover and I don't know why.

I see my baby girl and she's starting to cry.

They say the truth will set us free!

This is why I say...

"This is the end, my only friend."

I am pulling my courage once again.

I always knew you'd be watching your T.V.

This is the end.

I always knew you were insecure.

Loneliness is never the cure.

Don't push my love away!
