

Otherside

Delta Spirit

It's in my head, it's a relief,
A sweet sound that I don't want to leave.
Kickin' around, in the back of my mind,
It stays there, and just won't let me be.

Meet me on the other side,
Meet me on the other side,
I can't be honest with myself,
No, I wouldn't believe a word I say.

Put up a wall, I've been climbing up the wall,
To an end that still I cannot see.
Tell me I'm wrong, tell me if I'm wrong or right,
Tell me, so I can't let this be.
