

Tear It Up

Delta Spirit

Just tear it up

By the way she told me September's far too late
With her eyes like water and her heart too strong to hate

Just tear it up, you spare the lie

As the system shattered, brought the folks onto the street
All walks of life together put the past beneath their feet

Just tear it up, you spare the lie