

Hey Brother!

Deluxe

Hey brother!,
did you look around?
What I can see
is the end of humanity.

Hey mother!,
I learnt what you taught me,
but I can see things I would rather not see.

Can see dead people walkin' as marionettes,
they are satisfied, I think they really don't care.
But I want to get higher,
don't you want to get higher as well?

Hey brother!,
I'll try to break the wall.
Could you tell me
if you think I'm strong enough?

Hey father!,
I learnt what you taught me,
but all I hear now
are things I don't want to hear.

I know I can lie down and switch on T.V.
but that was not the reason why you brought me here.
'cause I want to get higher,
don't you want to get higher as well?
'cause I want to get higher,
don't you want to get higher as well?

Can see dead people walkin' as marionettes,
they are satisfied, I think they really don't care.
But I want to get higher,
don't you want to get higher as well?
But I want to get higher,
don't you want to get higher as well?

Hey brother!
Hey brother!
Hey brother!
Hey brother!

Hey brother!
Hey brother!
Hey brother!
Hey brother!

Hey brother!
