Demians

Sing goodbye
In ... time
Will you ever remember
Awakening on a slumber

I won't ask.. you
To fly so high
And help me to lift the weight
I'm feeling deep inside

In this place that's so familiar
We'll stay our temple forever.
We'll see the light
Brighter that ever

Whether you choose to stay
Or if you choose to run way
Your live is ours
And there is no other way

And if one day
I choose to run away
We'll be together
When we remember that day.

I still feel the sun is trying
I remember deeply then
I will miss you .. when you leave me.

Remember now
This moment that we share
Will never make me forget
Why I choose to stay

It's an awakening.. Dawn of slumber
Awakening.. It's the dawn of slumber
It's an awakening.. Dawn of slumber
Awakening... Dawn of slumber

Choose to stay
Or if I choose to run away
Your live is ours
And there is no other way

Contemplate now
December in my dreams.
Where even all I feared
Will make me disappear

Remember now..
This feeling we once shared
And keep them in your head.
Even when we're far away from...

Awakening.. Dawn of slumber
Awakening.. Dawn of slumber

I won't say goodbye this time
I won't let you die inside my mind.
Don't tell me goodbye this time
Or don't let me die inside my mind
