

Raining Down

Demon Hunter

The balance
The path is made
Nothing standing in my way
Indifferent, but turning gray
Over the fragile ground we laid

It may be calm for now
Oh, but somewhere else...

It's raining down
Under the promise of a dark and heartless sky
Raining now
We know the flood is coming
Don't close your eyes

The solace
The serenade
Every season in its place
The shelter
The only name holding misery at bay
