

Bobby And The Space Invaders

Dennis Wilson

Bobby was a man at seventeen
'Cause Bobby was the king of the slot machines
He loved to hear those pinball bells
All the chicks would watch while he gave 'em hell

One day Bobby walked down the street
To the very arcade on his regular beat
There was a shiny new machine
And bobby met the space invaders

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
Fire those lasers, let 'em know
You're the king of the slot machines
Bobby and the space invaders

Bobby dropped the coin into the slot
He's no fool 'cause he's really hot
The sky was filled with little green men
But Bobby was cool, he shot 'em down again

His lasers sparked fire and a cheer went round
When Bobby shot the saucer down
Now he's number one 'cause he saved the world from the space invaders

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
Fire those lasers, let 'em know
You're the king of the slot machines
Bobby and the space invaders

Bobby was the best that's ever been
And know he's king of the video screen
He sure started somethin' big
The whole world's playin' space invaders

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
Fire those lasers, let 'em know
You're the king of the slot machines
Bobby and the space invaders

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
Fire those lasers, let 'em know
You're the king of the slot machines
Bobby and the space invaders

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
(I said go!)

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
(go, go go!)

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
(I said go!)

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
(go, go go!)

Go Bobby, go Bobby, go Bobby, go
(I said go!)
