

Scum

Depeche Mode

Hey scum, hey scum
What have you ever done for anyone
Hey scum, hey scum
What are you going to do when karma comes

A'calling
And you're falling
And there's nowhere left to run
And you're weeping
And not sleeping
And you're begging for your gun

Pull the trigger

Hey scum, hey scum
What have you ever done for anyone?
Hey scum, hey scum
What will you do when judgement time has come

And you, re neeling
And you're squealing
And you're looking for someone
To bear witness
To your goodness
You can't even find your son

Pull the trigger
Pull the trigger

You wouldn't even offer up your crumbs

To the dying
And crying
You're dead inside, you're numb
You're hallow
And shallow
Your empty life is done

Pull the trigger
Hey scum, hey scum
Pull the trigger
