

Strangelove

Depeche Mode

There be times when my crimes will seem almost unforgiveble I give in to sin
becourse you have to make this life liveble
But when you think I've had enough from your sea of love
I'll take more than another riverfull
Yes and I'll make it all worthwhile
I'll make your heart smile

R: Strangelove strange highs and strange lows Strangelove that's how my love goes Strangelove
will you give it to me
will you take the pain
I will give to you again and again
and will you return it

There'll be days
When I'll stray
I may appear to be Constantly out of reach I give in to sin
Because I like to practice what I preach
I'm not trying to say
I'll have it all my way
I'm always willing to learn
When you've got something to teach
And I'll make it all worth-while
I'll make your heart smile

Pain will you return it
I'll say it again -- pain
Pain will you return it
I won't say it again

Strangelove
Strange highs and strange lows
Strangelove
That's how my love goes
Strangelove
Will you give it to me
