

Carpe Diem

Derdian

Mind explosion
Without reason
The beginning
Of a new season

Let the music take your spirit
Let a great emotion overcome it
Living on a tightrope I will build
A better life!

Tell me why I've to live as a poor man
Doing things I don't care
Doing things I hate!
Dying dying every day switching off my mind
People empty inside survives in the world!

But if you think
Life is one and you won't surely live
Forever as an highlander in a dream
You will begin
To consider every single day
As your last step
Along the way!
