

I had a job I had a good steady fat salary
I used to live my trivial life day after day
Then I heard a voice that whispered
"La libertà da un' iniqua società
Non e' un dono che puoi rifiutare"
I opened my eyes and found a world
Completely different
Was I sleeping at the time?

I used to hear my past life
Was a tribute to excellence
And everybody got to say: "What a, lucky guy"

Do you still believe now that a
Life at a desk is appealing why don't ask
To yourself if here you can get more...

Ho aperto i miei occhi e ho visto che
La vita e' una sola
Non voglio viverla così!

In your life you decide what you want to do
If you want a dragon life or live like a fool
Take your time, choice's not mine
Sometimes neither yours
Fate will open all the doors
The dragon life, of course!

One day I got a call from a long distant friend
He said "stop", drop everything!
We must leave tomorrow for a tour from
New York till the land of rising sun
Say "goodbye my friends I reach out my destiny"

And now it's time to live my dreams and
Leave it all behind
Will I be brave to touch the sky

In your life you decide what you want to do
If you want a dragon life or live like a fool
Take your time, choice's not mine
Sometimes neither yours
Fate will open all the doors
The dragon life, of course!
