

I Don't Wanna Die

Derdian

All I'm about to tell
Is a story of an injustice
When in a rainy night the Dark Lord capture me
He sent two warriors to kidnap me and to burn all of my life
I hardly understand the reason why

Golstar come! Cause I can't resist here in this castle
I will die without your love!
I'm too scared, my love, I beg you! now come here!

I don't wanna die, I wanna see you for one last time!
Come and save my life, cause in this cell I can't survive
Everyday I cry because your memory's too dear to me
I'm despairing for you, I beg you, come save me!

And my detention here will make me crazy and all the fear
Is taking my soul, is this situation real?
Believe me Golstar I still love you and I will for all my life
Although my final hour is getting near

I can hear! Noises in the corridor, they are coming here !
Help me dear, they will kill me!
Oh my god I must be strong hold back my fear

I don't wanna die, I wanna see you for one last time!
Come and save my life, cause in this cell I can't survive
Everyday I cry because your memory's too dear to me
I'm despairing for you, I beg you, come save me!

Your time' s out , lady Loren, we're here to kill you
And say your prayers female , all that you fear's true!

You think that Golstar's rage will punish us
There' s no way to beat the god of hate
Your weeping is so unuseful, now accept your fate!!!

Open!This cell! Here they are I feel like fainting fear appears in my eyes
Terror stops the blood in my veins!
And my hope is fading, 'cause they're telling me:
Let us say Troghlor's will!!!!!!

I don't wanna die, I wanna see you for one last time!
Come and save my life, cause in this cell I can't survive
Everyday I cry because your memory's too dear to me
I'm despairing for you, I beg you, come save me!
